

THINGS TO SEE

“A rival to Yosemite” are the words legendary conservationist John Muir once used to describe Kings Canyon National Park. With towering sequoia trees, deep valleys, wondrous rock formations, and the deepest canyon in the country, Kings Canyon is the place to go to see the wonders of nature at their magnificent best.

Notable sites and activities within this portion of the park include:

- Panoramic Point
- General Grant Tree and Trailhead
- Grant Grove Stables
- Big Stump Picnic Area

Lodging and Camping

- John Muir Lodge
- Crystal Springs Campground
- Azalea Campground
- Sunset Campground
